

CERES SCHOOL OF NATURE AND CLIMATE

PLANT A WILDLIFE GARDEN AT SCHOOL FOR FREE!

Attention Year 3 to 6 Teachers

Let a CERES educator guide your class through an exciting journey of environmental discovery and stewardship. Sign up now to cultivate curiosity and a love for nature.

Scan here for more info

For more information email:
studentprograms@ceres.org.au or call 9389 0144

Fully funded by Victorian Department of Education and Training,

Education and Training

WHAT'S ON OFFER

School participation in the program

Activity 1: Site assessment by CERES educator

Activity 2: 1 hour online overview for participating teacher/s

Activity 3: Online student engagement incursion

Activity 4: In-person design and planning incursion

Activity 5: Planting incursion

Key requirements and commitment from you

Select a class or up to 30 students from grades 3-6 to participate

Designate a teacher with time to engage with the program

Provide garden site details, max 49m²

Program Curriculum Links

The Schools for Wildlife Program covers curriculum links in areas including*

- Ethical Capability
- Geography
- Science
- Mathematics
- Design & Technology

*Curriculum support documents and learning resources are provided to participating schools to support student recognition and associated achievement standards.

If your school doesn't qualify for the program in 2024, approach your local government and ask them to sponsor it.

Call us and ask how.